

Join Archbishop Wood's Award-Winning Indoor Drumline!

Indoor Drumline is a marching or standstill percussion ensemble consisting of only the battery and pit sections of a marching band. Instruments include snare, bass, and tenor drums, xylophone, marimba, vibraphone, cymbals, and other percussion instruments.

Archbishop Wood's current three-time Tournament Indoor Association (TIA) Championship Drumline competes from mid-February through the beginning of May. The drumline is led by instructors Scott Wolfinger, Chad Kilheffner, Marissa Chirillo, and Matt Kurilla.
