Lend Me A Tenor is a non-musical zany comedy about the exploits of a 1934 opera company attempting to hide the fact that their star performer, the greatest tenor of his generation, has inadvertently taken a double-dose of tranquilizers and passes out. To try and salvage the evening, the star's assistant gets into costume. When the star comes to and dons his spare to take the stage, the comedy begins in earnest. A sensation on Broadway and in London's West End, this madcap, screwball comedy is sure to leave audiences teary-eyed with laughter!

Doors open at 7 p.m.
